Firing on J&K Border

437. SHRI PARAG CHALIHA: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) the number of the civilians evicted to safer places due to Pakistani firing in the Jammu and Kashmir border during the last six months and the places where they were rehabilitated;

(b) the expenditure incurred on their boarding and lodging during the said period and so far; and

(c) the amount of compensation paid to the civilians killed and injured during the above period and the norms for such compensation?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE PRIME MINISTER'S OFFICE (SHRI BHUVNESH CHATURVEDI): (a) to (c) No civilian was evicted to safer places by the Government from border areas during the last six months due to Pakistani firing. 'However, during the month of January/February, 1996, some families from Pragwal Sector in Jammu Region migrated to safer places including Jammu due to the continued Pakistani firing in the area but they returned to their native places as soon as the situation become normal. Senior civil and Army authorities visited the area and assured the people of every assistance. Due to Pakistani firing, a civilian was killed in his house. The State Government has informed that Rs. One Lakh each is being paid as ex-gratia relief to those killed and the relief for those who got injured varies keeping in view the gricvousness of the injury.
